Training Site:

EMPA

A Police agency's effectiveness is directly related to the quality of its police officers. Today, a legally defensible recruit evaluation process is a must in reducing an agency's liability. This class, based on the nationally recognized "San Jose" model, is designed for the Field Training Supervisor.

Tuition:

Member $75.00

Non-Member $150.00

The student will learn the eight philosophies that govern the successful operation of an effective FTO program. The student will learn about liability associated with the Field Training Program, as well as liabilities associated with terminating employees.

MO POST hours - 24 hours: 6-hrs Legal Studies and 18-hrs Technical Studies.

Instructor(s):

Dustyn Tienter – Lieutenant, Troy Police Department. 18 year veteran currently assigned to the Patrol Division and responsible for the departments training program.

Rich Will – Retired Sergeant, Overland Police Department. 26 year veteran and former FTO and FTO supervisor. Currently the training coordinator for EMPA.
